We are inclined to the opinion that our contemporary is near about right in regard to that resignation.

THE Marshall Herald is opposed to the whipping post on the groundthat it hardens men in crime and that it has been tested and repealed. It is still in force in Delaware and has been for the past century. A well ordered farm, well chosen stock, comfortable building, a neatly kept garden, roadway or entrance way, gates well hung, fences well kept, shade trees, ornamental shrubbery, paint without and whitewash within-all these are worth more to the farmer in money value than a few hundred dollars carefully scraped together and jealously hoarded and loaned to needy neighbors at interest. No investment pays so well as ntoney judiciously spent in farm improvements. Draining wet land will pay fifty to one hundred per cent. on its cost every year; good stock will pay equally well; good roads will return their cost every year, a gate will
